

APPENDIX A-1

SELECTED FCC REGULATIONS

From the FCC Rules governing amateur radio...

97.103 Station Licensee responsibilities

a) The Station Licensee is responsible for the proper operation of the station in accordance with the FCC Rules. When the control operator is a different amateur operator other than the Station Licensee, both persons are equally responsible for the proper operation of the station.

97.113 Prohibited Transmissions

a) No amateur station shall transmit any communication the purpose of which is to facilitate the business or commercial affairs of any party. No station shall transmit communications as an alternate to other authorized radio services, except as necessary to providing emergency communications. A station may, however, transmit communications to:

(2) Inform other amateur operators of the availability of apparatus normally used in an amateur radio station, including such apparatus for sale or trade. This exception is not authorized to any person seeking to derive a profit by buying or selling such apparatus on a regular basis.

97.205 Repeater Station

e) Ancillary functions of a repeater that are available to users in the input channel are not considered remotely controlled functions of the station. Limiting the use of a repeater to only certain user stations is permissible.
